Larson to Host Sustainable Communities Forum with Special Guest Congressman Blumenauer of Oregon

Hartford, CT- U.S. Congressman John B. Larson (CT-01) will host an open forum to promote livable communities with special guest U.S. Congressman Earl Blumenauer of Oregon, Chairman of the House Livable Communities Task Force, Monday morning at the Bushnell Center for the Performing Arts.

Larson and Blumenauer will be joined by federal, state, and local stakeholders to discuss Hartford's One City, One Plan/I-Quilt Proposal, an innovative plan to produce a vibrant, safer, more sustainable community by better incorporating the city's transit, cultural, and housing resources.

Congressman Blumenauer is nationally recognized as an advocate for livable communities, places where people are safe, healthy and economically secure. In addition to serving as Chair of the House Livable Communities Task Force, Congressman Blumenauer is founder of the Committee for a Livable Future.

To RSVP, please contact Congressman Larson's office at 860-278-8888.
